WESTLAW® PEOPLEMAP

Try the exclusive dynamic graphical display

If you want, you can research via the graphical view with identifying icons to easily see connections between people and records. Just click on an icon and see where the visual trail leads you. At any time, switch between the underlying documents and graphical view to determine the origin and relevance of the information.

You can also focus your graphical research with the dynamic tool bar. The tool bar lets you select the types of records you want to view in relation to your person, and switch record types at will. It's an easy way to view just the information you're looking for.
