LEARN INSTANTLY ABOUT CRITICAL DEVELOPMENTS AND VOTING DECISIONS

IDRAC[®] AdComm Bulletin gives you a balanced view of all issues discussed at selected FDA, CDER, CBER and Office of the Commission meetings. It enables you to be always on top of FDA decisions regarding new product launches, product approvals and withdrawals, clinical trials, advances in new drug classes — and much more.

IDRAC AdComm Bulletin is emailed to you soon after each selected US FDA Advisory Committee Meeting ends. There is simply no faster or easier way to learn about critical developments and voting decisions at the FDA's Advisory Committee Meetings.

For current IDRAC[®] online regulatory database subscribers, IDRAC AdComm Bulletin integrates links to IDRAC documents that are relevant to the issues discussed at the meetings and voted on by committee members.

EASY-TO-READ, VALUABLE INTELLIGENCE

IDRAC AdComm Bulletin presents regulatory, clinical, and marketing information in an easy-to-read format organized by subject, so you can focus quickly on only the information you need.

It arrives in your email box automatically, so you never have to remember to actively check other information sources in order to uncover the regulatory intelligence that can affect your company.

To get the same information found in IDRAC AdComm Bulletin from current publications on the market, you would have to search for and read entire articles, often weeks or months after the developments have occurred. IDRAC AdComm Bulletin, however, is designed so you can glance over the entire summary and go directly to the information you need — quickly and easily.

The regulatory intelligence you can gain from viewing an impartial summary of Advisory Committee Meeting deliberations, and the background that formulated the committee decisions, will give you an important competitive advantage.

With such targeted information at your fingertips, you save significant time, effort, and expense.
