

REUTERS MESSAGING INTERCHANGE

AN ENTERPRISE INSTANT MESSAGING CLEARING HOUSE

CONNECTING THE WORLD OF BUSINESS ON ENTERPRISE IM

Reuters Messaging (RM) Interchange is the first and only solution in the realm of real-time communication that enables users of multiple and disparate enterprise IM systems to connect via a single hub.

LEVERAGING YOUR EXISTING INFRASTRUCTURE, RM INTERCHANGE:

- Allows front office users to communicate with customers currently out of reach on enterprise IM
- Eliminates the need to maintain multiple, and potentially unauthorized, IM solutions
- Opens a channel of instant, more efficient communication within the enterprise (e.g. by connecting front and back office staff)

HOW DO FRONT OFFICE USERS BENEFIT FROM RM INTERCHANGE?

- Get more business done by connecting with contacts in thousands of organizations across the globe
- Communicate more efficiently with back office staff and colleagues in other parts of the world.
- Work smarter by conducting all IM communications on a single, authorized, and compliant system
- Remain productive by using a solution that's already in place and familiar; no new systems to master, no learning curve

MAXIMIZE YOUR EXISTING TECHNOLOGY INVESTMENT AND CURB COSTS

Simple administration

- Single link to all counterparties via a secure, trusted enterprise IM clearing house from Thomson Reuters
- Fully hosted and managed service with 24x7 QoS and support
- Managed SLA featuring centralized tracking and reporting

Contain technology costs

- Be technology agnostic and reduce dependency on technology refresh
- Reduce costs associated with hardware, licenses, certificates, etc.
- No need for gateways: Microsoft OCS 2007 / LCS 2005 SPI, IBM Sametime*, Cisco Jabber XCP, Reuters Messaging

Remain compliant and reduce risk

- Supports enforcement of communication policies
- IM traffic routed through existing compliance systems
