MARKIT INTRADAY

Markit Intraday allows credit investors, traders and portfolio managers to monitor the most liquid credits in the marketplace.

- Comprehensive coverage of streaming prices for the major tradable CDS indices (on and off the run) and their constituents
- Streaming prices on approximately 1,200 Single Names including over 60 sovereigns and 250 financial institutions
- Bid/Offer composite spreads and/or upfronts based on real-time dealer committed quotes
- Prices from over 35 institutions across the globe, including all the major CDS market makers

The screenshot displays the Thomson Reuters Eikon Markit Intraday interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Indices', 'Markit Intraday', 'Credit Analysis', 'RED Chg', 'Top News', and 'Links'. Below this is a search bar for 'CDS Name Search' and 'Issuer'. The main content area is divided into two sections: 'CDS Indices (Delayed)' and 'CDS Constituents (Delayed)'. The 'CDS Indices' table lists various indices like CDX.NA.IG.16-V1 5Y, CDX.NA.IG.HV.16-V1 5Y, etc., with columns for Bid, Ask, 1D %Chg, 1W %Chg, and EDT. The 'CDS Constituents' section is split into three columns, each listing individual companies with their respective CDS prices and changes. The interface is viewed through a Windows Internet Explorer browser window.
