THOMSON REUTERS UNIQUE MARKET INSIGHT FOR STRATEGIC COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

How do you research your peers and industry? Do you have to search through multiple resources? Is the information unique and actionable? With our Business Intelligence solutions, you can accelerate your knowledge-gathering to empower informed and timely decision-making across your company.

Our Web-based Thomson ONE platform integrates all the institutional-quality information and analytics you need to:

- Gather competitive information on your peers, by company or business unit level.
- Monitor sell-side views of a company or industry through broker and market research.
- Screen for private or public companies that meet your specific criteria, then view profiles and comparables.
- Access corporate conference call webcasts, briefs and transcripts.
- Track global industry news, significant developments and trends.
- Perform in-depth benchmarking analysis.
- Research M&A activity by region or industry. Learn which firms advised on a deal, what premium was paid, and how the deal was financed.
- Assess risk within your counterparty banks, suppliers, partners and clients.
- Leverage our Spreadsheet Link Excel add-in to conduct company analysis using pre-built templates, or populate your existing models and have them dynamically update.
