

THOMSON REUTERS BUSINESS CLASSIFICATION

THOMSON REUTERS BUSINESS CLASSIFICATION (TRBC) is the global, comprehensive industry classification system owned and operated by Thomson Reuters. The market based system helps you identify, analyze and monitor industries across global markets.

View companies at any of 4 levels:

- 10 Economic Sectors
- 25 Business Sectors
- 52 Industry Groups
- 124 Industries

MORE COMPANIES IN MORE COUNTRIES

- Complete coverage across 130 developed, emerging & frontier countries
- 74,000 public companies classified – more than any other sector classification system
- Up to 10 years of history available
- Powers 4 levels of Thomson Reuters Sector Indices in 51 countries and 23 regions

PROACTIVE & SYSTEMATIC REVIEW

- Continual review of Mergers, Corporate Actions and Major Developments means company assignments are always up to date
- Company financials are reviewed annually

CONSISTENT AND RELEVANT METHODOLOGY

Well structured, globally relevant and more market-focused industries allow fast access to companies shaping the emerging business landscape.

- Industries have enough constituents for meaningful analysis whilst being granular enough to isolate important trends
- Relevant to the current economic landscape with a fully revised Financial sector and a newly added Renewable Energy industry
- Scheme is proven to provide greater correlation between economic conditions and sector groupings
