WHY CHOOSE THOMSON REUTERS IDEALRATINGS INDICES?

- ✓ Only provider to use research-based rather than automated screening
- ✓ Compliments existing Thomson Reuters Islamic Finance offerings
- ✓ Unique priced based liquidity filter ensures all constituents are investable

Thomson Reuters Indices is a trusted and comprehensive global suite of equity indices. Using the screening capabilities of IdealRatings, Thomson Reuters have developed a range of Shariah-compliant benchmark indices.

The indices combine Thomson Reuters' unparalleled coverage of global equity markets and consistent, rules based methodology with IdealRatings' expertise and research-based approach to Shariah-compliant screening.

DECADES OF EXPERIENCE

Thomson Reuters has been calculating and distributing indices for years - including some of the world's best known indices.

Each index is constructed employing content sets with the highest data integrity.

IdealRatings has been providing Shariah fund management services for financial institutions since 2006.

IdealRatings is the market leader in helping asset managers in more than 10 countries launch and manage Shariah compliant funds with the ability to generate the highest alpha available given the tight compliance and purification process.

RESEARCH BASED SCREENING

- Proprietary algorithms used to scour all public information and news about a given company to determine whether activities should be screened further for non-compliance
- Dedicated team of researchers scrutinizes algorithm outputs for accuracy checks and analyzes company financials and lines of business
- Over 30 revenue streams of interest to Shariah compliance tracked for each company
- AAOIFI adherent screening process guarantees broadest acceptance across countries and interpretations of Islamic law
