

REUTERS NEWS PICTURES SERVICE

A WINDOW ON OUR WORLD NOW

It can happen in an instant. Yet has the power to change everything. The events that shape the world are captured at Reuters every day. Reuters News Pictures Service offers you an essential source of comprehensive news imagery from every corner of the globe, around-the-clock.

Our flagship pictures service is ideal for publishers who need to know exactly what is happening in the world. Images of the biggest stories as they break make it a vital editorial resource for the world's media as well as government and corporate organisations.

Our network of over 600 photographers uses local knowledge and global presence to provide unsurpassed coverage. With the highest quality control and tight editing, we deliver over 1,000 pictures a day targeted for your local needs. Reuters has a long-standing reputation for pioneering technology and workflow – including remote-triggered cameras and remote editing – ensuring our clients are the first to receive images within minutes of key events.
